TO GOEBEL'S OLD HOME

His Remains Taken to Covington Today.

PUNERAL SERVICES TO BE SIMPLE.

Body to Lie In State Tomorrow, Also In Frankfort, on Wednesday, Where the Remains Will Be Taken For Final Interment.-His Death.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 5 .- The remains of Governor Goebel were taken so Covington today on a special train. The train consisted of three cars, one car for the casket and actual pallbearers. A private car was furnished the relatives of the dead man, while a sleeper was furnished for the members of the legislative committee, judges of the court of appeals and other political friends. Tomorrow morning the re-mains will be conveyed to Odd Fellows' hall, in Covington, and from 8:30 in the morning until 10 o'clock in the evening, will lie in state, the half being kept open in the evening to allow the working people an opportunity to view the remains. The funeral services will be extremely simple, in deference not only to the wishes of Governor Goebel, but also of the members of his family. There will be a guard of honor in Covington, selected by Arthur and Justus Goebel, consisting of 50 citizens, but outside of this there will be no cere-mony or display of any kind. Even the funeral cortege will be lacking.

Wednesday morning the remains will be brought back to Frankfort and placed in the big ballroom of the Capitol hotel where they will lie in state all that day. Some apprehension is felt of trouble on that day, as it is believed that from 30,-000 to 50,000 strangers will be in the city to view the remains of the Demo-cratic leader, and bitter feeling engendered by his death may result in a clash. Precautions are being taken irrespective of party to prevent trouble, and no serious outbreak is tooked for.

The interment will take place Thursday from the Capitol hotel.

It practically has been decided that the remains of Governor Goebel will be buried in Frankfort, in the cemetery overlooking the Kentucky river, where lie the remains of Daniel Boone, Vice President Richard Johnson and several Kentucky governors, eminent jurists and soldiers. Arthur and Justus Goebel. Senator-elect Joe Blackburn, S. J. Shackelford, clerk of the court of ap-peals, and Warden Lillard visited the cemetery Sunday, and spent some time in looking over the ground, with a view to selecting a suitable spot for the last resting place of Governor Goebel. Though no definite decision was reached, a spot in the vicinity of the immense shaft erected in honor of Kentucky's dead soldiers, nearly the highest point in the beautiful cemetery, was favored, and will probably be selected.

Plans for the raising of funds by pop-ular subscription for the erection of a monument to Governor Goebel's memory are rapidly taking snape. It is the usual custom in Kentucky for the legis-It is the lature to make an appropriation for a monument for a dead governor. sides this appropriation, which Demo-cratic leaders say is certain to be made, it is planued either to provide in the appropriation bill or in a separate reso-lution for a legislative committee, in whose hands will be placed the funds for the erection of the monument, and who will be authorized to accept funds by popular subscription, which will be added to the state appropriation. It is also planned to have committees appointed in Covington. Bowling Green.

Owensboro, Frankfort and Louisville to receive funds for this purpose.

Besides the monument, a suitable tablet, to mark the spot where Governor Goebel was shot, will be provided for. Governor Goebel died about 6:45 Sat-

The only persons present at the death-bed were Mr. Goebel's sister, Mrs. Brannecker, and his brother, Arthur Goebel, of Cincinnati, who have been in constant attendance at Mr. Goebel's bedside, and Dr. McCormack.

Justus Goebel, another brother, who has been hurrying from Arizona as fast as steam would carry him, in a vain hope of reaching his dying brother in time for some token of recognition, arrived 40 minutes too late.

Oxygen was frequently administered to the dying man during the afternoon, in an effort to keep him alive until his brother's arrival, but in vain. By the cruel irony of fate, the train on which Justus Goebel was traveling to Frankfort was delayed several hours, from various causes, and when Mr. Goebel finally reached here it was only to learn that his brother was dead.

Among bitter partisans of both parties deep grief was manifested. During the day, at Mr. Goebel's request, Chaplain Wallace, of the Kentucky penitentiary, an intimate friend, was sent for, and the two had a short conversation, "Lew," said Mr. Goebel, "I wish to announce to the world that I do not hold myself in violence to the worl of

Dr. McCormack endeavored to cheer the fast-failing man, but the latter soon relapsed into a condition of semi-consciousness. About 11 o'clock he roused himself again, and calling Dr. McCormack to his side, said:

"Doctor, am I to get well? I want to know the truth, for I have several things to attend to."

"Mr. Goebel, you have but a few hours to live," replied Dr. McCormack.

Mr. Goebei was silent for a moment, then calling his brother, Arthur Goebel, to his side he asked that the physician and nurses retire. Then for 20 minutes the dying man was left with his brother and sister, Mrs. Braunacker.

Later on, when it became apparent that the end was not far off, Rev. Dr. Tallaferro, of the Methodist church of Frankfort, was sont fer. He came at once. Softly entering the death chamber, Dr. Tallaferro crossed over to where Mr. Goebel lay ga-ping for breath, and kneeling at the side of the bed, prayed with tears streaming down their faces, Mrs. Braunacker and Arthur Goebel knelt at the bedside also. Then Dr. Tallaterro rose, and, opening his Bible, read a few selected verses from the Epistle of St. James. As the words of the Apostle were read by the divine, the dying and apparently unconscious man stirred slightly.

Quickly leaning over his brother, Arthur Goebel said: "Will, Dr. Talla-ferro is here."

No response came from the dying man, but, as Arthur Gosbel leaned over him, looking anxiously for some sign of recognition, a look of intelligence came into the half-closed eyes, and it was apparent that Mr. Gosbel understood what was said to him.

the room, and descending the stairs, enthe room, and descending the stairs, entered the ladies' reception room, where, at the request of several ladies, wives of legislators, he held brief services. Then the divine again went to Mr. Goebel's bedside, and about five minutes afterward took his departure.

Further on, as Dr. Hume departed from the room the afflicted brother and sister turned to Dr. McCormack and requested that they be left enursly along quested that they be left entirely alone with their brother, who was tast sinking, and to both physicians, apparently, in articulo mortis. The physicians silently withdrew, closed the door softly behind them, leaving the grief's ricken brother and sister, who were with him when death came.

ALONZO WALKER RELEASED.

Military Authorities Declared He Was Arrested For Inciting Militiamen to Mutiny.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 5 .- Alonzo Walker, the stenographer who was placed under arrest on the charge of inciting the soldiers of the state guard to mutiny while pinning a notice of a proposed application for an injunction upon the door of Governor Taylor, was re-

The release was not made in response to the writ of habeas corpus which Sheriff Suter tried in vain Saturday to serve upon Governor Taylor. The lat-ter concluded that Walker had remained in custody for a sufficient length of time and told him to go home. The charge of inciting to mutiny has not been quashed, but Walker may not be brought before a courtmartial, as was at one time contemplated by the officers of Adjutant General Collier said Walker Adjutant General Collier said Walker was not discharged, but simply given his liberty until arrangements can be made for his trial by courtmartial. When this will be has not been determined as yet, and probably will not be at present. Mr. Walker was not even paroled, although he offered to sign a formal parole. But this was not considered necessary, as he promised to be on hand when his trial was called, and his word was sufficient.

Asked if Walker's release was influenced at all by a desire to forestall any possible application to the federal court for a writ of habeas corpus, Adju-tant General Collier said: "Not in the least. As I said, his arrest was simply a matter of military discipline. He was the first to attempt to incite mutiny, and we considered that any attempts of that kind should be nipped in the bud."

"A wrong impression apparently pre-vails in regard to the reasons for the arrest," said Colonel Williams. "Mr. Walker was heard to make statements two days before his arrest that were regarded as mutinous, and persons overlearing his remarks made affidavit to that effect. Those affidavits are now on file with the governor. The order for his arrest was accordingly made out by Governor Taylor, and we were only waiting for an opportunity to arrest him. His arrest at the time it did occur was as unlooked for by us as it was by him, and was more of an accident than design. Mr. Waiker himself will tell you that the order for his arrest was read to him two minutes after he was arrested. It is simply nonsense to say that he was confined because he pinned a court notice on the governor's

TAYLOR DEFIED COURTS.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 5 .- Governor Taylor has practically defied court service. On Saturday, the application for a restraining order, which prevented the ture at London or from barring the Goein court.

R. Armstrong, ex-sheritt of Franklin county, and Benjamin Jeffries were of-fered as bondsmen. Judge Cantrill then signed the order and said he would hear argument 1.6 a permanent injunction at Georgetown, 30 miles from here, Feb. 8. The next term of circuit court is at Georgetown. He asked if defendant's counsel was present, and, after the silence which followed, adjourned court. So much for the injunction.

Judge Cantrill said after adjournment that it was not necessary to serve notice on the defendants in the matter of a re-straining order. "It is sufficient," in-continued, "If they learn of it in ...y way. Notice can be given through ... newspapers, or by cards. What is the next step? Well, if the defendants refuse to obey the injunction it is contempt of court." The plaintiffs, if they have reasonable proof that the order is known to the defendants, can make an affidavit to that effect and ask that they be attached for contempt." In another court, a writ of habeas corpus for Alonzo Walker was issued, but the military authorities refused to allow Sheriff Suter to serve it.

oudge Moore said in part:
"We will not make another attempt to serve the writ until after injunction proceedings are heard at Georgetown next week. Then the sheriff will swear in a posse and go back.

"I expect we will have to call in men from the surrounding counties. We can get 10,000 deputies if we need them, and I'm atraid we will.

"The detendants could be cited for contempt of court and probably will be."

Democrats Set Up Government In Louisville.

LEGISLATORS MET THERE TODAY.

Plan to Adjourn From Day to Day With out Doing Business-Castleman May Use Police and Constables to Protect Democratic Lawmakers.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 5 .- This city is to be the seat, temporarily at least, of the Democratic state government. Governor Beckham and the rest of his chief advisers reached here this morning. Today the Democratic members of the legislature met here, and it is purposed to make Louisville the Democratic head-quarters of the executive and legislative branches of the state government as long as the presence of troops keeps them from Frankfort or until the present conflict of authority in the state is set-

Enough of the Democratic members cf each house met here today to form a quorum. Ne legislation will be attempted, but an adjournment from day to day will be held pending a settlement of the legal questions involved in the present dispute between the parties.

The details of this plan were decided upon at a conference held by the Demogratic leaders at Johnship hotel.

cratic leaders at Zelbach's hotel, Sunday afternoon and evening. Governor Beckham came here, Sunday, accompanied by Speaker Trimble, of the house of representatives, Colonel Bennett H. Young, of Louisville, who is one of the chief legal advisers of the Democrats, and other leaders wuo have been at Frankfort conducting the party's affairs since Governor Goe-bel was wounded last Tuesday. Gen-eral Oastleman, the newly appointed adjutant general, and local leaders of prominence, came in during the day, as well as a number of Democratic members of the legislature.

It was stated by members of the legislature present at the conference that requests had been made at Frankfort by persons connected with Governor Tay-lor's administration that Democratic members of the legislature would be arrested if necessary to secure their attendance upon the session of the legisla-ture called by the Republican governor to meet at London, Ky., next Tuesday. These members asserted they had been warued not to return to Frankfort. It was declared to be the purpose of the Democrats to do nothing that would tend to provoke a conflict or to indicate that it was their intention to forcibly antagonize Governor Taylor's administration. Measures to protect the Demo-cratic legislators and state officers, however, were thought to be necessary.

General Castleman had atready com municated to Governor Beckham his acceptance of the position of adjutant general. The general took active part in the discussion of this phase of the plans, and it was said ample arrangements were made to protect the mem-bers of the Democratic administration from molestation by Governor Taylor's forces.

Whether or not this is to be done through the organization of another state guard has not been made clear. It is thought, however, that the main reliance of the Democrats will be placed, at least for the present, in the police force of the city and the constabulary of the county. The mayor and city officers and the sheriff of the county are Democrats and will undoubtedly recognize Beckham as defendants from assembling the legisla- governor. The number of men at their command is considerable, and the am-ple arrangements mentioned as having been made are believed to be in the direction of strengthening this force.

DEMOCRATS WILL NOT VOTE.

So Declared if Taken to London-Repub tienns Gone There For Meeting of Their Legislature.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 5.—Nearly every member of the legislature has left the city, the Republicans having gone in the direction of London, and the majority of the Democrats to their homes, although a small number of them have gone to Cincinnati. Few, if any, of the Democrats who have gone will return to Frankfort until after the session of the legistature, which is called for tomorrow at London, has been held, although a large number of them expect to be present at the funeral of Governor Gobel.

The lerving of the Democratic sena-The let ving of the Democratic sena-tors and representatives was upon the advice of their attorneys, who told them that it would, all things considered, be the best thing for them to go to their homes, or to some place where they could not be reached in a hurry should attempts be made to arrest thom and take them to London, as had been threatened, by the military forces of the state. It has been decided by the Demo-crats that they will make no resistance crats that they will make no resistance in the event of arrest and conveyance to London, but that when they arrive they will not vote upon one subject that may be brought before the session.

There have been numerous rumors all day that the Democrats intended to hold a session of their own at some place in the state outside of Frankfort. Some times the rumors named Covington, and some times it was London. The report could not be substantiated in any way, however. Representative G. T. Berry, who was about the only member of the house around the Capitol hotel Sunday, said that he had been advised to go away from Frankfort until after the Republicans had started their ression in London, but said that he had decided to remain here. He denied that Great Britain agrees to a modification there was any intention to hold a Demoplace outside the capital of the state.
